Section 1: Introduction

At GOGETFIT, your privacy is important to us.

This Privacy Policy explains how GGF Lifestyle Technologies Private Limited ("Company," "GOGETFIT," "we," "our," or "us") collects, uses, stores, processes, shares, protects, and manages your personal information when you access or use the GOGETFIT Platform, including our mobile applications, website, coaching services, challenges, rewards programmes, and any other products or services offered by the Company from time to time (collectively referred to as the "Platform").

GOGETFIT is committed to maintaining the confidentiality, integrity, and security of your personal information. We believe that trust is earned through transparency, and this Privacy Policy is designed to help you understand what information we collect, why we collect it, how we use it, and the choices available to you.

By creating an account, accessing, or using the Platform, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this Privacy Policy and consent to the collection, use, storage, processing, and disclosure of your information in accordance with this Privacy Policy and applicable laws.

©GGF Lifestyle Technologies Private Limited

Section 2: SCOPE OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy applies to all individuals who access or interact with the GOGETFIT Platform, including but not limited to:

- Registered Users;
- prospective Users;
- Coaches;
- Brand Ambassadors;
- challenge participants;
- website visitors;
- applicants for coaching or partnership programmes; and
- any other individual who provides information to the Company or uses any GOGETFIT Service.

This Privacy Policy applies to all products, services, features, programmes, subscriptions, competitions, challenges, FitCoins, community features, educational content, artificial intelligence features, and other offerings made available by the Company from time to time.

Where a particular Service is governed by a separate privacy notice or policy, such policy shall apply in addition to this Privacy Policy.

Section 3: DEFINITIONS

Unless the context otherwise requires, the capitalised terms used in this Privacy Policy shall have the meanings assigned below.

3.1 Company

"Company" means GGF Lifestyle Technologies Private Limited, including its successors, assigns, affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, authorised representatives, and permitted service providers.

3.2 GOGETFIT

"GOGETFIT" means the health, fitness, nutrition, lifestyle, coaching, wellness, and technology platform owned and operated by the Company.

3.3 Platform

"Platform" means the GOGETFIT mobile application, website, software, systems, tools, digital services, communication channels, and all related products and services operated by the Company.

3.4 Personal Information

"Personal Information" means any information that identifies, relates to, describes, or can reasonably be associated with an identified or identifiable individual, including information voluntarily provided by the User or collected through the Platform.

3.5 Health Information

"Health Information" means any information relating to a User's physical health, fitness, nutrition, lifestyle, body measurements, exercise habits, dietary preferences, medical conditions voluntarily disclosed by the User, injuries, allergies, fitness goals, progress, transformation records, or similar information collected for the purpose of providing GOGETFIT Services.

3.6 Processing

"Processing" means any operation performed on Personal Information, whether by automated or manual means, including collection, recording, organisation, storage, updating, retrieval, consultation, use, analysis, sharing, disclosure, transfer, restriction, anonymisation, deletion, or destruction.

3.7 User

"User" means any individual who accesses, browses, registers for, purchases, or otherwise uses the GOGETFIT Platform or any of its Services.

3.8 Applicable Law

"Applicable Law" means all laws, rules, regulations, governmental orders, judicial decisions, or legally binding requirements applicable to the Company, the Platform, or the processing of Personal Information.

Section 4: INFORMATION WE COLLECT

To provide, improve, secure, and continuously enhance the GOGETFIT Platform and its Services, the Company may collect various categories of information from or about Users. The information collected depends on how the User interacts with the Platform, the Services used, permissions granted, and information voluntarily provided by the User.

The Company collects only such information as is reasonably necessary for legitimate business purposes, service delivery, legal compliance, security, and the enhancement of the User experience.

4.1 Information Provided by the User

The Company may collect information that the User voluntarily provides while creating an account, completing a profile, enrolling in a Coaching Plan, communicating with a Coach, participating in challenges, or otherwise using the Platform.

Such information may include:

- Full name;
- Mobile number;
- Email address;
- Date of birth;
- Gender;
- Profile photograph;
- City, State, and Country;
- Preferred language;
- Emergency contact details (if provided);
- Occupation or profession (if provided); and
- Any other information voluntarily submitted by the User.

4.2 Health & Fitness Information

To deliver personalised coaching and recommendations, the Company may collect health, wellness, nutrition, and fitness-related information voluntarily provided by the User, including:

- Height;
- Weight;
- Target weight;
- Age;
- Body measurements;
- Body composition details (where available);
- Fitness goals;
- Medical conditions voluntarily disclosed;
- Injuries or physical limitations;

- Allergies;
- Medications voluntarily disclosed;
- Dietary preferences;
- Food allergies or intolerances;
- Lifestyle habits;
- Physical activity levels;
- Exercise history;
- Workout preferences;
- Sleep habits (where provided);
- Water intake (where tracked); and
- Any other information relevant to delivering GOGETFIT Services.

The User acknowledges that such information is voluntarily provided and is used to personalise coaching and improve the quality of Services.

4.3 Progress & Transformation Information

The Company may collect information relating to the User's fitness journey, including:

- Weight logs;
- Body measurements;
- Progress photographs;
- Transformation photographs;
- Workout completion history;
- Exercise performance;
- Food logs;
- Daily habits;
- Step counts;
- Challenge participation;
- Challenge rankings;
- Leaderboard positions;
- FitCoins earned or redeemed;
- Milestones achieved;
- Coach assessments;
- Progress reviews; and
- Other fitness-related records generated during the User's journey.

4.4 Coaching & Communication Information

To facilitate personalised coaching and support, the Company may collect records relating to interactions between the User and the Company or Coaches, including:

- Messages exchanged through the Platform;
- Coaching feedback;
- Progress reviews;
- Consultation notes;
- Questionnaires;
- Assessment forms;
- Metric forms;

- Support requests;
- Feedback submitted by the User;
- Ratings and reviews;
- Call records or recordings, where legally permitted and disclosed;
- Video consultation records, where applicable; and
- Other communications relating to the Services.

4.5 Payment & Transaction Information

When a User purchases a Coaching Plan or other eligible Service, the Company may collect or receive transaction-related information, including:

- Coaching Plan purchased;
- Subscription duration;
- Payment amount;
- Currency;
- Payment status;
- Transaction reference number;
- Coupon or promotional code used;
- Refund requests;
- Refund status;
- Billing information, where applicable; and
- Other payment-related information necessary for processing transactions.

The Company does not store complete debit card, credit card, UPI PIN, internet banking credentials, or other sensitive payment authentication information. Payments are processed through authorised third-party payment service providers.

4.6 Device & Technical Information

When the Platform is accessed, the Company may automatically collect technical information, including:

- Device type;
- Device model;
- Operating system;
- Application version;
- Device identifiers;
- IP address;
- Browser type (where applicable);
- Network information;
- Language settings;
- Time zone;
- Crash reports;
- Diagnostic information;
- Performance analytics;
- Login activity; and
- Other technical information necessary for maintaining and improving the Platform.

4.7 Usage Information

The Company may collect information regarding how Users interact with the Platform, including:

- Features accessed;
- Pages viewed;
- Time spent on the Platform;
- Navigation behaviour;
- Search activity;
- Buttons clicked;
- Workout usage;
- Food log usage;
- Coach selection history;
- Challenge participation;
- FitCoins activity;
- Referral activity;
- App engagement metrics; and
- Other usage statistics.

4.8 Information from Third Parties

The Company may receive information from third parties where permitted by applicable law or authorised by the User, including:

- Payment service providers;
- Identity verification providers;
- Analytics providers;
- Marketing partners;
- Social media platforms, where the User chooses to interact through them;
- Wearable devices;
- Health and fitness integrations;
- Insurance or wellness partners;
- Laboratory or diagnostic partners;
- Corporate wellness partners; and
- Other authorised third-party service providers.

4.9 Information Collected Through Future Features

As the GOGETFIT Platform evolves, the Company may introduce new products, technologies, artificial intelligence features, integrations, wellness programmes, educational services, marketplaces, rewards programmes, or other functionalities.

The Company may collect additional categories of information reasonably necessary to provide such features. Where required by applicable law, the Company will provide additional notice, obtain consent, or update this Privacy Policy before collecting or processing such information.

4.10 Information You Choose Not to Provide

Certain information requested by the Company may be optional, while other information may be necessary for creating an account, enrolling in a Coaching Plan, delivering personalised coaching, or providing specific Platform features.

If a User chooses not to provide information that is reasonably required, certain Services or functionalities may be unavailable or may not operate as intended.

Section 5: HOW WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

The Company collects Personal Information through various methods to provide, maintain, improve, and secure the GOGETFIT Platform and its Services. Depending on how a User interacts with the Platform, information may be collected directly from the User, automatically through technology, or from authorised third parties.

5.1 Information Provided Directly by the User

The Company collects information that Users voluntarily provide while interacting with the Platform, including when they:

- Register or create an account;
- Verify their mobile number using OTP;
- Complete or update their profile;
- Fill questionnaires or assessment forms;
- Submit body metrics or health information;
- Purchase or renew a Coaching Plan;
- Communicate with Coaches or the Company;
- Participate in challenges, competitions, or community activities;
- Submit feedback, reviews, or support requests; or
- Otherwise choose to provide information through the Platform.

5.2 Information Collected Automatically

When a User accesses or uses the Platform, certain information may be collected automatically through the User's device or browser to ensure the proper functioning, security, and performance of the Platform.
Such information may include:

- Device information;
- Operating system details;
- IP address;
- App version;
- Device identifiers;
- Language preferences;
- Login timestamps;
- Session duration;
- Crash reports;
- Performance diagnostics;
- Usage analytics; and
- Other technical information necessary for maintaining and improving the Platform.

5.6 Information from Future Integrations

As the Platform evolves, the Company may introduce integrations with third-party products or services, including health platforms, wearable devices, artificial intelligence tools, laboratory services, insurance partners, wellness providers, or other authorised integrations.

Where a User chooses to connect such services, the Company may collect information from those integrations in accordance with this Privacy Policy, the applicable third-party privacy policies, and the User's permissions.

5.7 Information from Public Sources

Where permitted by applicable law, the Company may collect limited information from publicly available sources or publicly accessible profiles when reasonably necessary for identity verification, fraud prevention, business development, partnership evaluation, or other legitimate business purposes.

The Company does not collect publicly available information for unrelated or unlawful purposes.

5.8 Accuracy of Information

Users are responsible for ensuring that the information they provide is accurate, complete, and up to date.

Providing inaccurate, misleading, outdated, or incomplete information may affect the quality of Services, personalised recommendations, or the User's ability to access certain Platform features.

5.9 Information Relating to Other Individuals

If a User voluntarily provides information relating to another individual (for example, while enrolling under a Duo, Family, Squad, Team, Corporate, or other multi-user Coaching Plan), the User represents that they have the necessary authority or consent to provide such information to the Company.

The Company reserves the right to request additional confirmation or documentation where reasonably necessary.

©GGF Lifestyle Technologies Private Limited

5.10 Family & Group Enrolments

Where a Coaching Plan includes more than one participant, each participant may be required to create or activate their own GOGETFIT account and independently accept the applicable Terms & Conditions, Privacy Policy, and other applicable policies before accessing personalised coaching services. The purchaser of a multi-participant Coaching Plan is responsible for ensuring that each participant has been informed about the collection and processing of their Personal Information by the Company.

Section 6: WHY WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

The Company collects and processes Personal Information only for legitimate, lawful, and business-related purposes necessary to provide, operate, improve, secure, and expand the GOGETFIT Platform and its Services.

The information collected enables the Company to deliver personalised coaching, maintain Platform security, improve User experience, comply with legal obligations, develop new features, and fulfil its contractual responsibilities to Users.

The Company does not collect Personal Information for purposes that are incompatible with those described in this Privacy Policy, unless otherwise permitted or required by applicable law.

6.1 To Create and Manage User Accounts

The Company collects information to:

- Create and manage User accounts;
- Verify mobile numbers through OTP authentication;
- Authenticate Users during login;
- Maintain User profiles;
- Enable secure access to Platform features; and
- Prevent unauthorised access to User accounts.

6.2 To Deliver Personalised Coaching Services

The Company processes User information to:

- Assess individual fitness levels;
- Understand health and wellness goals;
- Design personalised workout plans;
- Prepare customised nutrition plans;
- Monitor progress;
- Provide coaching guidance;
- Recommend suitable programmes; and
- Deliver an improved coaching experience.

6.3 To Operate the GOGETFIT Platform

The Company uses information to:

- Provide Platform functionality;

- Enable communication between Users and Coaches;
- Manage Coaching Plans;
- Deliver digital content;
- Track User progress;
- Manage challenges and competitions;
- Operate the FitCoins reward system;
- Maintain leaderboards; and
- Support all Platform features and Services.

6.4 To Process Payments and Manage Subscriptions

The Company may process information to:

- Process payments;
- Verify successful transactions;
- Generate invoices;
- Apply promotional offers or coupon codes;
- Manage Coaching Plan purchases and renewals;
- Process eligible refunds;
- Prevent fraudulent transactions; and
- Maintain financial records required under applicable law.

6.5 To Communicate with Users

The Company may communicate with Users regarding:

- Account activity;
- Coaching updates;
- Plan activation;
- Progress reminders;
- Educational content;
- Challenge participation;
- FitCoins;
- Leaderboards;
- Product updates;
- Security alerts;
- Service announcements;
- Policy updates;
- Customer support;
- Promotional offers (where permitted); and
- Other Platform-related communications.

Communications may be made through the Platform, email, SMS, WhatsApp, telephone calls, push notifications, or other authorised communication channels.

6.6 To Improve the Platform

The Company continually analyses information to:

- Improve User experience;
- Enhance Platform performance;
- Identify technical issues;
- Develop new features;
- Improve coaching methodologies;
- Enhance artificial intelligence capabilities;
- Improve analytics;
- Conduct internal research;
- Optimise product design; and
- Improve overall Service quality.

Where possible and appropriate, the Company may use aggregated or anonymised information for research, analytics, and product improvement.

6.7 To Ensure Safety, Security and Fraud Prevention

The Company may process information to:

- Detect fraudulent activity;
- Prevent unauthorised access;
- Protect User accounts;
- Investigate suspicious activity;
- Maintain Platform security;
- Prevent abuse of Services;
- Detect policy violations;
- Protect intellectual property; and
- Safeguard the rights of the Company, Users, Coaches, and other stakeholders.

6.8 To Comply with Legal and Regulatory Obligations

The Company may collect, use, retain, or disclose information where reasonably necessary to:

- Comply with applicable laws;
- Respond to lawful governmental requests;
- Cooperate with regulatory authorities;
- Comply with tax, accounting, or financial reporting requirements;
- Protect legal rights;
- Resolve disputes;
- Enforce agreements; or
- Meet other legal obligations.

6.9 To Conduct Business Operations

The Company may process information for legitimate business purposes, including:

- Internal administration;
- Financial management;
- Auditing;
- Risk management;
- Business planning;
- Service quality monitoring;
- Corporate governance;
- Staff training;
- Business continuity;
- Mergers, acquisitions, restructuring, or investment activities; and
- Other operational purposes necessary to manage the business.

Where reasonably possible, the Company will minimise the Personal Information used for such purposes.

6.10 To Conduct Challenges, Rewards & Community Programmes

The Company may use User information to:

- Verify eligibility for GOGETFIT Challenges;
- Track participation and progress;
- Determine winners;
- Award prize money;
- Credit FitCoins;
- Manage leaderboards;
- Prevent unfair practices or fraud;
- Verify compliance with challenge rules; and
- Administer rewards, promotions, referral programmes, Brand Ambassador programmes, or other incentive initiatives introduced by the Company.

Where a User voluntarily participates in a challenge or promotional activity, certain information such as display name, rankings, achievements, progress, or transformation results may be displayed within the Platform in accordance with the applicable Challenge & Rewards Policy and the User's privacy settings, where available.

6.11 To Develop Future Services

As GOGETFIT continues to grow, the Company may use information to develop and improve future offerings, including:

- Artificial intelligence features;
- Digital wellness tools;
- Educational programmes;
- Corporate wellness services;
- Insurance partnerships;
- Laboratory integrations;
- E-commerce and merchandise;
- Nutrition products;
- Community initiatives;
- New coaching programmes; and
- Other health, fitness, or lifestyle services.

Where required by applicable law, the Company will provide additional notice or obtain consent before processing information for materially different purposes.

6.12 Purpose Limitation

The Company will process Personal Information only for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy or for other compatible purposes permitted by applicable law.

If the Company intends to process Personal Information for a purpose materially different from those described herein, it will provide appropriate notice and obtain consent where required by applicable law.

Section 7: HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

The Company uses Personal Information responsibly and only for legitimate business purposes consistent with this Privacy Policy, the GOGETFIT Platform Terms & Conditions, and applicable laws. The information processed enables the Company to deliver personalised Services, improve the Platform, maintain security, fulfil contractual obligations, and enhance the overall User experience.

The Company does not sell Personal Information to third parties

7.1 To Provide GOGETFIT Services

The Company uses Personal Information to:

- Create and manage User accounts;
- Deliver personalised coaching;
- Provide customised workout and nutrition plans;
- Monitor User progress;
- Enable communication between Users and Coaches;
- Operate Coaching Plans;
- Deliver educational content;
- Facilitate consultations; and
- Provide other Platform features and Services.

7.2 To Personalise the User Experience

The Company may use User information to personalise the Platform experience, including:

- Displaying relevant content;
- Providing customised recommendations;
- Suggesting appropriate Coaching Plans;
- Recommending suitable Coaches;
- Tailoring educational resources;
- Personalising notifications; and
- Improving individual fitness journeys based on User preferences and goals.

7.3 To Facilitate Coach-User Interactions

The Company may share relevant information with the assigned Coach solely for the purpose of providing coaching Services.

Coaches may use such information to:

- Understand User goals;
- Prepare personalised plans;
- Monitor progress;
- Provide feedback;
- Conduct assessments;
- Recommend modifications; and
- Support the User throughout their coaching journey.

Coaches are contractually required to maintain the confidentiality of User information and use it only for authorised coaching purposes.

7.4 To Manage Challenges, Rewards & FitCoins

The Company may use information to:

- Verify eligibility;
- Monitor participation;
- Calculate challenge progress;
- Maintain leaderboards;
- Award prize money;
- Credit or deduct FitCoins;
- Prevent fraudulent participation;
- Validate challenge results; and
- Administer promotional campaigns and rewards programmes.

Where applicable, certain information such as display name, rankings, achievements, or transformation milestones may be displayed within the Platform in accordance with the applicable Challenge & Rewards Policy.

7.5 To Process Payments & Financial Transactions

The Company uses transaction-related information to:

- Process payments;
- Verify successful transactions;
- Activate Coaching Plans;
- Generate invoices;
- Process eligible refunds;
- Apply promotional benefits;
- Maintain financial records;
- Prevent payment fraud; and
- Comply with applicable accounting and tax laws.

7.6 To Communicate with Users

The Company may use Personal Information to communicate with Users regarding:

- Coaching updates;
- Account activity;
- Security alerts;
- Platform announcements;
- Policy changes;
- Service reminders;
- Customer support;
- Challenge notifications;
- Promotional offers (where permitted);
- Surveys;
- Educational content; and
- Other information relevant to the User's relationship with GOGETFIT.

Communications may be made through email, SMS, WhatsApp, telephone calls, push notifications, in-app messages, or other authorised communication channels.

7.7 To Improve the Platform

The Company continually analyses information to:

- Improve Platform functionality;
- Enhance User experience;
- Develop new features;
- Improve coaching methodologies;
- Optimise system performance;
- Resolve technical issues;
- Improve analytics;
- Conduct internal research;
- Enhance artificial intelligence capabilities; and
- Improve overall Service quality.

Where reasonably possible, the Company may use aggregated or anonymised information for research and product development.

7.8 To Ensure Safety, Security & Compliance

The Company may use Personal Information to:

- Detect fraudulent activities;
- Prevent unauthorised access;
- Protect User accounts;
- Investigate suspicious activity;
- Monitor compliance with Company policies;

- Protect intellectual property;
- Enforce contractual obligations;
- Resolve disputes; and
- Protect the rights, safety, and security of the Company, Users, Coaches, Brand Ambassadors, and other stakeholders.

7.9 For Legal & Regulatory Purposes

The Company may use Personal Information where reasonably necessary to:

- Comply with applicable laws;
- Respond to lawful requests from government authorities;
- Cooperate with regulatory agencies;
- Protect legal rights;
- Defend legal claims;
- Resolve disputes;
- Enforce Company policies; and
- Meet statutory or regulatory obligations.

7.10 For Business Development & Future Services

The Company may use information to evaluate, develop, and improve future products and services, including:

- Artificial intelligence features;
- Wellness programmes;
- Corporate solutions;
- Laboratory integrations;
- Insurance collaborations;
- E-commerce and merchandise;
- Nutrition products;
- Educational initiatives;
- Community features; and
- Other innovations introduced by the Company.

Where required by applicable law, the Company will provide additional notice or obtain consent before processing Personal Information for materially different purposes.

7.11 Marketing Communications

The Company may send Users updates regarding new features, educational content, promotions, campaigns, events, surveys, or other marketing communications where permitted by applicable law.

Users may opt out of receiving promotional communications at any time through the communication preferences available within the Platform or by following the unsubscribe instructions provided in the communication.

Operational, transactional, security, or legally required communications may continue to be sent even if a User opts out of promotional communications.

7.12 Use of Aggregated & Anonymised Information

The Company may aggregate or anonymise information so that it no longer identifies an individual User.

Such aggregated or anonymised information may be used for:

- Statistical analysis;
- Product improvement;
- Research;
- Business planning;
- Trend analysis;
- Performance reporting;
- Educational insights; and
- Other legitimate business purposes.

Where information has been anonymised, it is no longer considered Personal Information.

7.13 No Sale of Personal Information

The Company does not sell, rent, or trade Users' Personal Information to third parties for monetary consideration.

Any sharing of Personal Information shall occur only for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, with the User's consent where required, or as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law.

7.14 Use of Transformation Stories

The Company values and respects the privacy of every User. Transformation photographs, testimonials, reviews, success stories, or similar content submitted by a User shall not be used for marketing, promotional, educational, or commercial purposes without the User's consent or other lawful basis as permitted under applicable law. Where a User voluntarily participates in promotional campaigns or provides consent for such use, the Company may use the relevant content in accordance with the scope of that consent.

Section 8: SHARING & DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Company respects the privacy of its Users and does not sell or disclose Personal Information except as described in this Privacy Policy, with the User's consent, or as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law.

The Company may share Personal Information only to the extent reasonably necessary to operate the Platform, deliver Services, fulfil contractual obligations, protect legitimate interests, comply with legal requirements, or support the continued growth and improvement of the GOGETFIT ecosystem.

8.1 Sharing with Assigned Coaches

The Company may share relevant Personal Information with the User's selected or assigned Coach for the purpose of providing personalised coaching Services.

Such information may include:

- Profile information;
- Fitness goals;
- Health and fitness information voluntarily provided by the User;
- Progress records;
- Workout history;
- Nutrition information;
- Assessment forms;
- Progress photographs;
- Challenge participation;
- Feedback; and
- Other information reasonably required to deliver coaching Services.

All Coaches are contractually bound by confidentiality obligations and may use such information solely for authorised GOGETFIT coaching purposes.

8.2 Sharing with Service Providers

The Company may engage trusted third-party service providers to support the operation of the Platform.

Such service providers may include:

- Payment gateway providers;
- Cloud hosting providers;
- Data storage providers;
- Analytics providers;
- Customer support platforms;

- Communication service providers;
- Notification services;
- Identity verification providers;
- Cybersecurity providers;
- Technical support providers; and
- Other vendors engaged to support the Platform.

These service providers receive only the information reasonably necessary to perform their services and are required to protect such information in accordance with applicable contractual and legal obligations.

8.3 Sharing Within the GOGETFIT Ecosystem

Where reasonably necessary to provide Services, the Company may share relevant information internally with authorised employees, management personnel, consultants, support staff, auditors, legal advisors, compliance personnel, or other authorised representatives who require access to perform their official responsibilities.

Access to Personal Information shall be limited to individuals who have a legitimate business need and are subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations.

8.4 Sharing for Challenges, Rewards & Community Features

Where a User voluntarily participates in GOGETFIT Challenges, competitions, leaderboards, referral programmes, Brand Ambassador programmes, or similar initiatives, certain information may be displayed or shared within the Platform for the purpose of administering such programmes.

Depending on the nature of the programme, this may include:

- Display name;
- Profile photograph (where chosen by the User);
- Challenge rankings;
- Leaderboard position;
- Achievements;
- Badges;
- FitCoins earned;
- Challenge statistics; and
- Other information reasonably necessary for transparent administration of the programme.

The extent of such display shall be governed by the applicable Challenge & Rewards Policy and, where available, the User's privacy settings.

8.5 Sharing with Business Partners

The Company may collaborate with authorised business partners, including wellness providers, laboratories, insurance partners, educational institutions, corporate organisations, merchandise partners, or other service providers.

Where such collaborations require the processing of Personal Information, the Company shall share only the minimum information reasonably necessary to provide the relevant Service and in accordance with applicable law and contractual safeguards.

Where required, the Company will obtain the User's consent before sharing Personal Information.

8.6 Sharing During Corporate Transactions

If the Company undergoes a merger, acquisition, investment, restructuring, sale of assets, business transfer, insolvency proceeding, or similar corporate transaction, Personal Information may be transferred as part of such transaction, subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations and applicable law.

The Company will take reasonable steps to ensure that any successor entity continues to protect Personal Information in a manner substantially consistent with this Privacy Policy.

8.7 Sharing for Legal Compliance

The Company may disclose Personal Information where reasonably necessary to:

- Comply with applicable laws;
- Respond to lawful requests from government authorities;
- Comply with court orders;
- Cooperate with law enforcement agencies;
- Protect legal rights;
- Investigate fraud or unlawful activities;
- Enforce Company agreements;
- Protect the safety of Users or the public; or
- Fulfil other legal or regulatory obligations.

The Company will make reasonable efforts to ensure that such disclosures are lawful, proportionate, and limited to what is necessary.

8.8 Sharing with User Consent

The Company may share Personal Information with third parties where the User has expressly authorised or consented to such sharing.

Users may withdraw their consent at any time, subject to legal, contractual, or operational limitations.

Withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before such withdrawal.

8.9 Aggregated & Anonymised Information

The Company may share aggregated, statistical, or anonymised information that does not identify an individual User for purposes such as:

- Research;
- Analytics;
- Product development;
- Business planning;
- Industry reporting;
- Educational initiatives; and
- Other legitimate business purposes.

Such information does not constitute Personal Information.

8.10 No Sale of Personal Information

The Company does not sell, rent, lease, or trade Users' Personal Information to third parties for monetary consideration.

Any sharing of Personal Information shall occur only in accordance with this Privacy Policy, the User's consent where required, or applicable law.

8.11 International Service Providers

The Company may engage service providers located in jurisdictions outside the User's country of residence for cloud hosting, analytics, communication, technical support, security, or other operational purposes.

Where Personal Information is transferred internationally, the Company will take reasonable measures to ensure that such information receives an appropriate level of protection consistent with applicable law.

8.12 Transformation Stories & Testimonials

The Company shall not publish, promote, advertise, or otherwise use a User's identifiable transformation photographs, testimonials, reviews, videos, or success stories for marketing or commercial purposes without the User's consent or other lawful basis as permitted under applicable law. Where a User voluntarily provides such consent, the Company may use the approved content for promotional, educational, recruitment, investor, corporate wellness, or other legitimate business purposes consistent with the scope of the consent provided.

Section 9: DATA STORAGE & INFORMATION SECURITY

The Company recognises the importance of protecting Personal Information and is committed to implementing reasonable administrative, technical, organisational, and physical safeguards designed to protect the confidentiality, integrity, availability, and security of the information entrusted to us.

While the Company strives to maintain a secure Platform, no method of electronic transmission, internet communication, cloud storage, or electronic data storage can be guaranteed to be completely secure. Users acknowledge and accept the inherent risks associated with the use of digital platforms.

9.1 Security Measures

The Company maintains appropriate security measures designed to protect Personal Information against accidental, unlawful, or unauthorised:

- Access;
- Collection;
- Use;
- Disclosure;
- Alteration;
- Loss;
- Destruction; or
- Misuse.

Such measures may include administrative, technical, organisational, and physical safeguards appropriate to the nature of the information being processed.

9.2 Access Control

Access to Personal Information is restricted to authorised employees, Coaches, consultants, contractors, service providers, and other authorised representatives who require such access for legitimate business purposes.

The Company follows the principle of least privilege, ensuring that individuals are granted access only to the information reasonably necessary to perform their authorised responsibilities.

9.3 Data Storage

Personal Information may be stored:

- On secure cloud infrastructure;
- On authorised Company systems;
- Through trusted third-party hosting providers;
- In backup systems maintained for business continuity; or
- Through other secure storage solutions approved by the Company.

The Company may store information in India or other jurisdictions where its authorised service providers operate, subject to applicable laws and appropriate safeguards.

9.4 Data Encryption & Secure Transmission

Where reasonably appropriate, the Company may use industry-standard encryption technologies and secure communication protocols to help protect Personal Information during transmission and storage.

The Company continually evaluates and improves its security practices in light of technological developments and operational requirements.

9.4 Data Encryption & Secure Transmission

Where reasonably appropriate, the Company may use industry-standard encryption technologies and secure communication protocols to help protect Personal Information during transmission and storage.

The Company continually evaluates and improves its security practices in light of technological developments and operational requirements.

9.6 Third-Party Service Providers

The Company may engage trusted third-party service providers for hosting, payment processing, analytics, customer support, communications, security, and other operational purposes.

The Company makes reasonable efforts to engage service providers that maintain appropriate security standards. However, the Company cannot independently guarantee or warrant the security practices of every third-party service provider.

9.7 Security Incidents

If the Company becomes aware of a security incident or Personal Information breach that is reasonably likely to affect Users, the Company may investigate the incident and, where required by applicable law, notify affected Users and relevant authorities within a reasonable time.

The Company reserves the right to take any appropriate measures necessary to contain, investigate, mitigate, or remedy such incidents.

9.8 Data Integrity

The Company takes reasonable steps to ensure that Personal Information remains accurate, complete, and relevant for the purposes for which it is processed.

Users are encouraged to keep their profile information and health information updated to help ensure the accuracy of personalised coaching recommendations.

9.9 Business Continuity & Backup

To ensure the continuity of the Platform and Services, the Company may maintain backups of certain information and implement disaster recovery procedures.

Backup information shall be protected using safeguards reasonably appropriate to the nature of the stored information.

9.10 No Absolute Security Guarantee

Although the Company continuously works to protect Personal Information using reasonable security practices, no electronic platform, cloud infrastructure, communication network, software application, or internet-based service can guarantee absolute security.

Accordingly, the Company does not warrant or guarantee that unauthorised access, cyber-attacks, malware, technical failures, or other security incidents will never occur.

Users acknowledge these inherent risks when accessing or using the Platform.

9.11 Reporting Security Concerns

Users who believe that their GOGETFIT account has been compromised or who identify any suspected security vulnerability, unauthorised access, fraudulent activity, or privacy concern should immediately notify the Company through the official support or grievance channels published by GOGETFIT.

The Company will make reasonable efforts to investigate and address legitimate security concerns in accordance with its internal policies and applicable law.

9.12 Continuous Improvement

The Company may periodically review, update, strengthen, or modify its security practices, technologies, operational procedures, and internal controls to address evolving security threats, technological advancements, business requirements, and legal obligations.

Nothing in this Privacy Policy shall be interpreted as limiting the Company's ability to adopt enhanced security measures at any time.

Section 10: DATA RETENTION

The Company retains Personal Information only for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, provide the GOGETFIT Services, comply with legal and regulatory obligations, resolve disputes, enforce agreements, protect legitimate business interests, and maintain appropriate business records.

The period for which Personal Information is retained may vary depending on the nature of the information, the Services used, legal requirements, operational needs, and applicable retention obligations.

10.1 Retention of Account Information

The Company may retain User account information for as long as the User maintains an active GOGETFIT account.

Where a User discontinues use of the Platform or requests account deletion, certain information may continue to be retained for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy and as required or permitted by applicable law.

10.2 Retention of Coaching Records

Information relating to Coaching Plans, workout programmes, nutrition plans, assessments, questionnaires, coaching notes, progress records, and other coaching-related information may be retained for a reasonable period to:

- Maintain continuity of Services;
- Support future renewals;
- Enable Users to access historical progress;
- Resolve disputes;
- Improve coaching methodologies; and
- Comply with applicable legal obligations.

10.3 Retention of Health & Fitness Information

Health and fitness information voluntarily provided by the User may be retained for as long as reasonably necessary to provide personalised coaching, maintain progress history, improve future recommendations, or fulfil legal or contractual obligations.

The Company may securely delete or anonymise such information when it is no longer required.

10.4 Retention of Financial & Transaction Records

Payment records, invoices, refunds, transaction histories, and other financial information may be retained for the period required under applicable tax, accounting, audit, financial reporting, or other legal obligations.

10.5 Retention of Communications

Communications between Users, Coaches, customer support personnel, or the Company, including emails, support tickets, feedback, complaints, and consultation records, may be retained for quality assurance, dispute resolution, legal compliance, staff training, fraud prevention, and operational purposes.

10.6 Backups & Disaster Recovery

The Company may retain copies of Personal Information within secure backup systems maintained for disaster recovery, business continuity, security monitoring, and system restoration.

Information stored in backup systems may continue to exist for a reasonable period even after deletion from active systems, subject to applicable security measures and operational requirements.

10.7 Deletion & Anonymisation

Where Personal Information is no longer required for the purposes for which it was collected, the Company may:

- Securely delete the information;
- Permanently anonymise the information so that it can no longer identify an individual; or
- Retain the information where required or permitted by applicable law.

Once information has been anonymised, it may be used for research, analytics, statistical reporting, product development, or other legitimate business purposes.

10.8 User Requests for Deletion

Users may request the deletion of their Personal Information in accordance with applicable law by contacting the Company through the designated support or grievance channels.

The Company will review such requests and take appropriate action, subject to:

- Legal obligations;
- Contractual obligations;
- Ongoing investigations;
- Fraud prevention requirements;
- Financial record retention obligations;
- Security requirements; and
- Other legitimate business purposes.

The Company may decline or partially fulfil deletion requests where retention is legally required or otherwise permitted under applicable law.

10.9 Suspension of Deletion

The Company may temporarily suspend the deletion of Personal Information where reasonably necessary to:

- Investigate fraud;
- Resolve disputes;
- Protect legal rights;
- Comply with legal proceedings;
- Respond to lawful governmental requests; or
- Enforce the Company's agreements and policies.

10.10 Continuous Review

The Company periodically reviews its data retention practices to ensure that Personal Information is retained only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy and in accordance with evolving legal, regulatory, operational, and technological requirements.

The Company reserves the right to modify its data retention practices from time to time, subject to applicable law.

10.11 Effect of Account Deletion

Deletion of a User's GOGETFIT account does not automatically require the immediate deletion of all associated Personal Information. Certain information may continue to be retained where necessary to comply with legal obligations, maintain financial and audit records, resolve disputes, prevent fraud, enforce agreements, protect the rights of the Company or other Users, maintain secure backups, or for other legitimate business purposes permitted under applicable law.

Section 11: YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS

The Company respects the privacy and autonomy of its Users and is committed to providing reasonable control over Personal Information, subject to applicable laws, contractual obligations, technical feasibility, and legitimate business requirements.

Depending on the nature of the Services used and the applicable laws, Users may exercise the rights described in this Section by contacting the Company through the designated support or grievance channels.

11.1 Right to Access Your Information

Users may request confirmation of whether the Company processes their Personal Information and may request access to the Personal Information maintained by the Company, subject to applicable law and reasonable verification of identity.

The Company reserves the right to withhold information where disclosure is prohibited by law, may adversely affect the rights of another individual, compromise security, reveal confidential business information, or is otherwise exempt under applicable law.

11.2 Right to Correct or Update Information

Users are encouraged to maintain accurate and up-to-date Personal Information.

Where permitted by the Platform, Users may update certain information directly through their GOGETFIT account. Users may also request correction or updating of inaccurate, incomplete, or outdated Personal Information by contacting the Company.

The Company may require reasonable verification before processing such requests.

11.3 Right to Request Deletion

Users may request deletion of their Personal Information in accordance with applicable law.

The Company will evaluate such requests and may delete, anonymise, or retain information where retention is necessary to:

- Comply with legal obligations;
- Fulfil contractual responsibilities;
- Maintain financial or audit records;
- Prevent fraud;
- Resolve disputes;
- Protect legal rights;
- Maintain security;

- Complete ongoing Services; or
- Fulfil other legitimate business purposes permitted by applicable law.

Deletion of Personal Information may result in the loss of access to certain GOGETFIT Services or features.

11.4 Right to Withdraw Consent

Where the processing of Personal Information is based on the User's consent, the User may withdraw such consent at any time by contacting the Company or using available Platform settings.

Withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before such withdrawal.

Withdrawal of consent may limit or prevent the Company from providing certain Services that depend on such information.

11.5 Right to Communication Preferences

Users may choose to manage certain communication preferences, including promotional communications, through available Platform settings or by following the instructions provided in such communications.

Users acknowledge that the Company may continue to send communications that are necessary for:

- Account security;
- Coaching Services;
- Transaction confirmations;
- Plan activation;
- Legal compliance;
- Policy updates;
- Customer support; and
- Other operational purposes.

11.6 Right to Lodge a Complaint

Users who believe that the Company has processed their Personal Information in a manner inconsistent with this Privacy Policy or applicable law may submit a complaint through the Company's designated grievance mechanism.

The Company will make reasonable efforts to acknowledge, investigate, and respond to legitimate complaints within a reasonable period.

Nothing in this Privacy Policy limits a User's right to approach any competent regulatory authority or legal forum where such rights are available under applicable law.

11.7 Right to Data Portability (Where Applicable)

Where required under applicable law and technically feasible, Users may request a copy of certain Personal Information provided to the Company in a structured, commonly used, and reasonably accessible format.

The Company reserves the right to decline requests where:

- The requested information cannot reasonably be separated from information relating to other individuals;
- Disclosure would compromise security;
- The request is manifestly excessive or repetitive; or
- Applicable law permits or requires refusal.

11.8 Right to Restrict or Object to Processing (Where Applicable)

Where recognised by applicable law, Users may request that the Company restrict or cease certain processing activities involving their Personal Information.

The Company will consider such requests in accordance with applicable law, contractual obligations, technical feasibility, and legitimate business interests.

11.9 Identity Verification

To protect User privacy and prevent unauthorised disclosure of Personal Information, the Company may require reasonable verification of the identity of any person submitting a privacy-related request before processing such request.

The Company may decline requests where it is unable to reasonably verify the identity or authority of the requester.

11.10 Exercising Your Privacy Rights

Users wishing to exercise any of the rights described in this Privacy Policy may contact the Company through the official support or grievance channels published by GOGETFIT.

The Company may:

- Request additional information to verify identity;
- Seek clarification regarding the request;

- Charge a reasonable fee where permitted by applicable law for repetitive or excessive requests; or
- Decline requests where legally permitted.

The Company will endeavour to respond within a reasonable timeframe in accordance with applicable law and the complexity of the request.

11.11 Limitations of Privacy Rights

The rights described in this Section are subject to applicable law and may be limited where necessary to:

- Protect the rights and freedoms of other individuals;
- Safeguard confidential business information;
- Maintain Platform security;
- Prevent fraud or abuse;
- Comply with legal obligations;
- Protect public safety;
- Enforce Company agreements; or
- Fulfil other lawful and legitimate business purposes.

Nothing in this Privacy Policy shall be interpreted as creating rights beyond those available under applicable law.

11.12 Effect of Deletion on Coaching History

If a User requests deletion of their Personal Information, certain coaching records, challenge participation history, FitCoins transactions, financial records, audit logs, or other information may continue to be retained where necessary to comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, maintain financial records, prevent fraud, ensure Platform integrity, or protect the legitimate interests of the Company. Deletion of Personal Information may also result in the permanent loss of historical coaching progress, transformation records, achievements, and personalised recommendations that cannot subsequently be restored.

Section 12: COOKIES & SIMILAR TECHNOLOGIES

The Company may use cookies, software development kits (SDKs), pixels, local storage, web beacons, device identifiers, and other similar technologies (collectively referred to as "Cookies and Similar Technologies") to improve the functionality, security, performance, and user experience of the GOGETFIT Platform.

These technologies help the Company understand how the Platform is used, remember User preferences, enhance security, measure performance, and continuously improve its products and Services.

12.1 What Are Cookies and Similar Technologies?

Cookies are small text files that may be stored on a User's browser or device when visiting the GOGETFIT website. Similar technologies, including SDKs, pixels, local storage, and device identifiers, perform comparable functions within the GOGETFIT mobile application and other digital services.

These technologies help the Company recognise devices, improve Platform performance, analyse usage patterns, remember preferences, and provide a more personalised experience.

12.2 Types of Technologies We May Use

The Company may use Cookies and Similar Technologies for purposes including:

- Authentication and account security;
- Maintaining User sessions;
- Remembering User preferences;
- Improving Platform functionality;
- Performance monitoring;
- Usage analytics;
- Error detection and troubleshooting;
- Fraud prevention;
- Personalisation of Services;
- Measuring the effectiveness of features and campaigns; and
- Other legitimate operational and business purposes.

12.3 Third-Party Technologies

The Company may use trusted third-party technologies to support the operation and improvement of the Platform.

These may include technologies provided by:

- Analytics service providers;
- Cloud service providers;
- Payment gateway providers;
- Customer support platforms;
- Communication service providers;
- Marketing and advertising partners (where applicable); and
- Other authorised technology partners.

The use of such technologies remains subject to the respective third-party privacy policies and applicable agreements.

12.4 Managing Cookies

Users visiting the GOGETFIT website may be able to manage or disable cookies through their browser settings.

Users of the GOGETFIT mobile application may manage certain permissions through their device settings, including permissions relating to notifications, camera, storage, microphone, or other device features.

Disabling certain Cookies or permissions may affect the availability, functionality, or performance of certain features of the Platform.

12.5 Analytics & Performance Monitoring

The Company may use analytics tools to better understand how Users interact with the Platform.

Such information may include:

- Features accessed;
- Screen views;
- Session duration;
- Navigation behaviour;
- Device information;
- Crash reports;
- Performance metrics;
- Usage trends; and
- Other aggregated analytical information.

Where reasonably possible, the Company uses aggregated or anonymised information to improve the quality, reliability, and performance of the Platform.

12.6 Future Technologies

As technology evolves, the Company may adopt new technologies similar to Cookies that help improve the functionality, security, performance, accessibility, personalisation, and reliability of the Platform.

The Company may update its use of such technologies in accordance with this Privacy Policy and applicable law.

12.7 Updates to Cookie Practices

The Company may modify its use of Cookies and Similar Technologies from time to time as the Platform evolves, new technologies become available, business requirements change, or legal obligations require updates.

Material changes will be reflected through updates to this Privacy Policy or other appropriate notices where required by applicable law.

12.8 Device Permissions

To provide certain features of the GOGETFIT Platform, the Company may request access to specific device permissions, including but not limited to the camera, photo gallery, storage, notifications, microphone, location (where applicable), or similar device features. Such permissions are requested only when required for the relevant functionality, and Users may manage or revoke these permissions through their device settings. Revoking certain permissions may limit or disable specific features of the Platform.

Section 13: THIRD-PARTY SERVICES & INTEGRATIONS

The GOGETFIT Platform may integrate with or utilise services provided by third-party organisations to facilitate the delivery, operation, security, functionality, and continuous improvement of the Platform.

While the Company carefully selects service providers and integration partners, many third-party services operate independently and maintain their own terms, privacy policies, and operational practices. Users are encouraged to review the applicable policies of such third parties where appropriate.

13.1 Third-Party Service Providers

The Company may engage third-party service providers for purposes including:

- Payment processing;
- Cloud hosting;
- Data storage;
- Analytics;
- Customer support;
- Communication services;
- Authentication;
- Cybersecurity;
- Technical support;
- Notifications;
- Infrastructure management; and
- Other operational requirements necessary for providing the Platform.

Such service providers receive only the information reasonably necessary to perform their respective services.

13.2 Payment Gateway Providers

Payments made through the GOGETFIT Platform are processed through authorised third-party payment gateway providers.

The Company does not store Users' complete debit card details, credit card details, UPI PINs, internet banking credentials, CVV numbers, or other sensitive payment authentication information.

Users acknowledge that payment transactions are subject to the applicable terms, conditions, security practices, and privacy policies of the respective payment service providers.

13.3 Health & Fitness Integrations

The Company may, from time to time, integrate with third-party health and fitness platforms, wearable devices, or wellness technologies, including but not limited to:

- Google Fit;
- Apple Health;
- Fitbit;
- Garmin;
- Samsung Health;
- Smart watches;
- Fitness trackers; and
- Other compatible health technologies.

Such integrations shall occur only where supported by the Platform and authorised by the User.

The information received from such integrations shall be processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy and the permissions granted by the User.

13.4 Future Business Integrations

As the GOGETFIT ecosystem expands, the Company may integrate with additional third-party services including:

- Laboratory and diagnostic partners;
- Insurance and wellness partners;
- Corporate wellness platforms;
- Educational platforms;
- Merchandise partners;
- Nutrition and supplement providers;
- Artificial intelligence services;
- Teleconsultation platforms;
- Healthcare service providers;
- Brand collaborators; and
- Other authorised business partners.

Where required by applicable law, the Company will provide appropriate notice or obtain the User's consent before enabling such integrations.

13.5 Third-Party Websites & Links

The Platform may contain links to third-party websites, applications, or services that are not owned or controlled by the Company.

The Company is not responsible for the privacy practices, security measures, content, availability, or policies of such third-party services.

Users access third-party websites or services at their own discretion and are encouraged to review the applicable privacy policies and terms before interacting with such services.

13.6 Third-Party Policies

Third-party service providers operate independently of the Company.

Accordingly, the collection, use, disclosure, storage, and processing of information by such third parties shall be governed by their respective privacy policies, terms of service, and applicable agreements.

Nothing in this Privacy Policy shall be interpreted as modifying or replacing the policies of any third-party service provider.

13.7 Changes to Third-Party Services

The Company may add, remove, replace, or modify third-party service providers and integrations from time to time to improve the functionality, security, reliability, or quality of the Platform.

Such operational changes do not necessarily require amendments to this Privacy Policy unless otherwise required by applicable law.

13.8 No Responsibility for Independent Third Parties

The Company shall not be responsible for:

- The availability of third-party services;
- Technical failures of third-party platforms;
- Acts or omissions of independent third parties;
- Security incidents occurring solely within third-party systems;
- Business decisions made by third-party providers; or
- Other matters beyond the Company's reasonable control.

Nothing in this clause limits any responsibility that cannot lawfully be excluded under applicable law.

13.9 User Consent for Integrations

Where a User voluntarily connects or authorises a third-party service to interact with the GOGETFIT Platform, the User acknowledges that relevant information may be exchanged between the Platform and such third-party service in accordance with the permissions granted by the User.

Users may disconnect supported integrations at any time through the Platform or the applicable third-party service, where technically available.

13.10 Future Technologies

As technology evolves, the Company may adopt new integrations, technologies, APIs, artificial intelligence systems, digital wellness tools, or other innovative solutions to enhance the GOGETFIT Platform.

The Company will implement such integrations responsibly and in accordance with this Privacy Policy and applicable law.

13.11 Third-Party Products & Services

From time to time, the GOGETFIT Platform may facilitate the discovery, purchase, redemption, or use of products or services offered by independent third-party partners, including merchandise, nutritional products, wellness services, laboratory services, insurance offerings, educational programmes, or other collaborations. Unless expressly stated otherwise, such products and services are provided by the respective third-party providers, who remain solely responsible for their quality, safety, fulfilment, warranties, customer support, legal compliance, and after-sales services. The Company's role is limited to facilitating access to such offerings through the Platform, where applicable.

Section 14: CHILDREN'S PRIVACY

The Company is committed to protecting the privacy of children and young persons. The GOGETFIT Platform is intended for individuals who are legally capable of entering into binding agreements under applicable law or who use the Platform with the involvement and consent of a parent or legal guardian where permitted.

The Company does not knowingly collect Personal Information from children in violation of applicable laws.

14.1 Minimum Age Requirement

The GOGETFIT Platform is not intended for children below the minimum age permitted under applicable law to independently use the Services.

Users represent that they satisfy the applicable age requirements or are accessing the Platform with the consent and supervision of their parent or legal guardian where legally permitted.

14.2 Parent or Guardian Consent

Where applicable law permits the use of the Platform by minors, such use shall be subject to the supervision, involvement, and consent of the minor's parent or legal guardian.

The parent or legal guardian shall be responsible for:

- Providing accurate information;
- Supervising the minor's use of the Platform;
- Monitoring participation in coaching activities;
- Reviewing applicable policies; and
- Ensuring compliance with the Company's Terms & Conditions and other applicable policies.

14.3 Information Collected from Minors

Where the Company becomes aware that Personal Information has been collected from a child or minor in a manner inconsistent with applicable law, the Company may:

- Suspend or restrict the relevant account;
- Request parental or guardian verification;
- Delete the relevant Personal Information where appropriate; or
- Take other measures reasonably necessary to comply with applicable law.

14.4 Coaching for Minors

Where coaching Services are provided to a minor, the Company may require the involvement of a parent or legal guardian during enrolment, onboarding, consultations, or other stages of the coaching journey where reasonably necessary.

The Company reserves the right to refuse or discontinue Services where adequate parental or guardian involvement cannot be established.

14.5 Responsibility of Parents and Guardians

Parents and legal guardians are encouraged to actively supervise a minor's use of the Platform and ensure that any information shared with the Company is accurate, appropriate, and provided with proper understanding.

The Company encourages parents and guardians to contact the Company if they believe that a child has provided Personal Information without appropriate authorisation.

14.6 Removal of Children's Information

Parents or legal guardians who believe that a child has submitted Personal Information without appropriate consent may contact the Company through the designated support or grievance channels.

Upon reasonable verification and where required by applicable law, the Company will take appropriate steps to investigate the request and delete or otherwise handle the information in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

14.7 Future Youth Programmes

If the Company introduces specialised coaching programmes, educational initiatives, school partnerships, youth fitness programmes, or other services specifically designed for minors in the future, such programmes may be governed by additional privacy notices, parental consent requirements, or programme-specific terms, as required by applicable law.

14.8 Age Misrepresentation

Users must not misrepresent their age or create an account on behalf of another person without appropriate legal authority. The Company reserves the right to suspend, restrict, or terminate any account where it reasonably believes that false age information or unauthorised registration has been provided.

Section 15: INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS

The GOGETFIT Platform is accessible to Users in multiple countries. Accordingly, Personal Information may be processed, stored, accessed, or transferred across national or international borders where necessary for the operation of the Platform, the provision of Services, or the engagement of authorised service providers.

The Company is committed to ensuring that any international transfer of Personal Information is carried out responsibly and in accordance with applicable laws.

15.1 Cross-Border Processing

By accessing or using the GOGETFIT Platform, Users acknowledge that their Personal Information may be processed in jurisdictions other than their country of residence.

Such processing may occur where the Company, its authorised service providers, cloud infrastructure providers, or business partners operate.

15.2 International Service Providers

The Company may engage authorised third-party service providers located in different countries for purposes including:

- Cloud hosting;
- Data storage;
- Payment processing;
- Customer support;
- Analytics;
- Communication services;
- Cybersecurity;
- Infrastructure management;
- Artificial intelligence services;
- Technical support; and
- Other operational requirements necessary for providing the Platform.

The Company takes reasonable steps to ensure that such service providers maintain appropriate safeguards for the protection of Personal Information.

15.3 Compliance with Applicable Laws

Where Personal Information is transferred across international borders, the Company shall endeavour to comply with applicable data protection and privacy laws governing such transfers.

©GGF Lifestyle Technologies Private Limited

Where required by applicable law, the Company may implement appropriate contractual, technical, organisational, or other recognised safeguards before transferring Personal Information internationally.

15.4 User Acknowledgement

By using the GOGETFIT Platform, Users acknowledge and understand that Personal Information may be transferred to, stored in, or processed in countries whose data protection laws may differ from those of the User's country of residence.

The Company will continue to apply reasonable safeguards designed to protect Personal Information regardless of where it is processed.

15.5 Business Expansion

As the GOGETFIT ecosystem expands globally, the Company may establish offices, subsidiaries, affiliates, regional operations, or engage additional service providers in different jurisdictions.

Personal Information may be transferred within the GOGETFIT group of companies or to authorised service providers where reasonably necessary to operate the Platform and provide Services, subject to applicable legal requirements.

15.6 International Users

Users accessing the GOGETFIT Platform from outside India acknowledge that their Personal Information may be transferred to and processed in India or other jurisdictions where the Company or its authorised service providers operate.

By continuing to use the Platform, Users consent to such processing to the extent permitted by applicable law.

15.7 Security of International Transfers

The Company implements reasonable administrative, technical, and organisational measures to protect Personal Information during international transfers.

While the Company strives to ensure appropriate safeguards are maintained, no international transmission or storage system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

©GGF Lifestyle Technologies Private Limited

15.8 Future Global Operations

As GOGETFIT introduces new products, services, partnerships, corporate wellness programmes, laboratories, insurance collaborations, merchandise operations, educational initiatives, or other business activities in additional countries, Personal Information may be transferred internationally where reasonably necessary to support such operations.

Any such transfers shall remain subject to this Privacy Policy and applicable law.

15.9 Global Platform

GOGETFIT is designed to operate as a global digital health and fitness platform. As the Company's operations expand internationally, Users acknowledge that the Company's infrastructure, technology partners, support teams, Coaches, authorised representatives, and service providers may operate from multiple jurisdictions. The Company remains committed to protecting Personal Information through reasonable safeguards regardless of where such information is processed.

Section 16: CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

The Company may revise, update, amend, or modify this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in applicable laws, regulatory requirements, technology, business operations, Platform features, security practices, or other legitimate business needs.

Users are encouraged to periodically review this Privacy Policy to remain informed about how the Company collects, uses, stores, shares, and protects Personal Information.

16.1 Right to Update

The Company reserves the right to modify this Privacy Policy at any time without prior notice, except where prior notice is required by applicable law.

Updates may be made to:

- Reflect changes in applicable laws or regulations;
- Introduce new products or Services;
- Improve privacy practices;
- Introduce new Platform features;
- Incorporate technological advancements;
- Address operational requirements; or
- Clarify existing provisions.

16.2 Effective Date

Each version of this Privacy Policy shall specify its "Effective Date" at the beginning of the document.

Unless otherwise stated, the revised Privacy Policy shall become effective from the Effective Date specified in the updated version.

16.3 Notification of Material Changes

Where the Company considers a change to be material, or where required by applicable law, the Company may notify Users through one or more of the following methods:

- In-app notifications;
- Email communications;
- WhatsApp communications (where applicable);
- Push notifications;
- Updates on the official GOGETFIT website;
- Platform announcements; or

- Other appropriate communication channels.

The method of notification shall be determined by the Company based on the nature and significance of the changes.

16.4 Continued Use of the Platform

Subject to applicable law, a User's continued access to or use of the GOGETFIT Platform after the Effective Date of a revised Privacy Policy constitutes acknowledgment of the updated Privacy Policy.

Where applicable law requires renewed consent for specific processing activities, the Company will obtain such consent before undertaking those activities.

16.5 User Responsibility

Users are responsible for reviewing this Privacy Policy periodically to stay informed of any updates.

The Company's failure to provide individual notice of every modification shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the updated Privacy Policy where such notice is not legally required.

16.6 Previous Versions

The Company may maintain previous versions of this Privacy Policy for record-keeping, legal, compliance, audit, or operational purposes.

The latest version published by the Company shall govern the collection, use, disclosure, and processing of Personal Information from its Effective Date unless otherwise required by applicable law.

16.7 Questions Regarding Updates

Users who have questions regarding any revision to this Privacy Policy may contact the Company through the official support or grievance channels provided by GOGETFIT.

The Company will make reasonable efforts to address genuine privacy-related enquiries within a reasonable timeframe.

16.8 No Waiver

The Company's decision not to immediately exercise any right or enforce any provision of this Privacy Policy shall not constitute a waiver of such right or provision. Any delay or omission in enforcing any part of this Privacy Policy shall not prevent the Company from enforcing it at a later time, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

The Company may request reasonable information to verify the identity of the requester before processing any request.

17.4 Response Time

The Company will make reasonable efforts to acknowledge and respond to genuine privacy-related enquiries, requests, and complaints within a reasonable period and in accordance with applicable law.

Complex requests may require additional time where reasonably necessary. Where appropriate, the Company will keep the User informed regarding the status of the request.

17.5 Identity Verification

To protect the privacy and security of Users, the Company may require reasonable proof of identity before disclosing Personal Information, processing correction requests, deleting information, or taking any other action relating to Personal Information.

The Company reserves the right to refuse requests where identity cannot be reasonably verified or where disclosure is prohibited by applicable law.

17.6 Fraudulent or Misleading Requests

The Company reserves the right to decline requests that are:

- Fraudulent;
- Malicious;
- Excessive;
- Repetitive;
- Manifestly unfounded;
- Intended to disrupt the Company's operations; or

- Otherwise not permitted under applicable law.

Nothing in this clause limits any rights available to Users under applicable law.

17.7 Updates to Contact Details

The Company may update its contact details, email addresses, office addresses, support channels, or Grievance Officer information from time to time.

The latest contact information published on the GOGETFIT Platform or official website shall supersede any previous contact information.

17.8 Scope of Privacy Enquiries

This Section applies only to enquiries relating to privacy, Personal Information, or this Privacy Policy. Queries relating to coaching Services, subscriptions, payments, refunds, technical support, challenges, FitCoins, Brand Ambassador programmes, or other operational matters should be directed to the appropriate GOGETFIT support channels as published on the Platform.

Section 18: GOVERNING LAW & JURISDICTION

This Privacy Policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India, without regard to its conflict of law principles.

Any dispute, claim, controversy, or legal proceeding arising out of or relating to this Privacy Policy, the processing of Personal Information, or the use of the GOGETFIT Platform shall be subject to the provisions of this Section.

18.1 Governing Law

This Privacy Policy shall be governed by, interpreted, and enforced in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India.

Where applicable, the Company shall also comply with privacy and data protection laws that may apply to Users located in other jurisdictions, to the extent required by such laws.

18.2 Jurisdiction

Subject to applicable law and any mandatory dispute resolution process specified by the Company, the courts having jurisdiction over the registered office of GGF Lifestyle Technologies Private Limited shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising out of or relating to this Privacy Policy.

18.3 Compliance with Applicable Laws

Nothing in this Privacy Policy shall be interpreted as limiting any rights or obligations that cannot lawfully be excluded or modified under applicable data protection, consumer protection, or other mandatory laws.

Where any provision of this Privacy Policy conflicts with a mandatory legal requirement, such mandatory legal requirement shall prevail only to the extent of the conflict.

18.4 Cooperation with Regulatory Authorities

The Company may cooperate with competent courts, governmental authorities, law enforcement agencies, regulatory bodies, or data protection authorities where required by applicable law.

Such cooperation may include the disclosure, preservation, or production of Personal Information where legally required or authorised.

18.5 Survival

The provisions of this Privacy Policy relating to confidentiality, data protection, limitation of liability, dispute resolution, governing law, jurisdiction, compliance, and any other provisions which by their nature are intended to survive shall continue to remain in effect even after:

- Closure of a User account;
- Completion or termination of a Coaching Plan;
- Discontinuation of Services;
- Termination of the User's relationship with the Company; or
- Deletion of a User account, to the extent permitted or required by applicable law.

18.6 Severability

If any provision of this Privacy Policy is held to be invalid, unlawful, unenforceable, or inconsistent with applicable law by a court or competent authority, such provision shall be deemed modified or severed only to the extent necessary, and the remaining provisions of this Privacy Policy shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 19: MISCELLANEOUS

This Section contains general provisions relating to the interpretation, operation, and administration of this Privacy Policy. These provisions are intended to ensure the continued effectiveness, enforceability, and proper interpretation of this Privacy Policy.

19.1 Entire Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy constitutes the complete statement of the Company's privacy practices relating to the collection, use, disclosure, storage, retention, and protection of Personal Information through the GOGETFIT Platform.

This Privacy Policy should be read together with the Company's:

- Terms & Conditions;
- Refund & Cancellation Policy;
- Medical Disclaimer & Consent;
- Challenge & Rewards Policy;
- Community Guidelines;
- Brand Ambassador Program Policy; and
- Any other policies, notices, or agreements published by the Company from time to time.

In the event of any inconsistency, the specific policy governing the relevant subject matter shall prevail to the extent of such inconsistency.

19.2 Independent Interpretation

The headings, titles, numbering, formatting, and examples used in this Privacy Policy are included solely for convenience and shall not affect the interpretation, scope, or meaning of any provision.

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa where the context so requires.

References to one gender include all genders.

19.3 No Waiver

Failure or delay by the Company in exercising or enforcing any right, remedy, or provision under this Privacy Policy shall not constitute a waiver of such right or prevent the Company from exercising that right at a later time.

Any waiver shall be effective only if made expressly in writing by an authorised representative of the Company.

19.4 Severability

If any provision of this Privacy Policy is determined by a court, regulatory authority, or other competent authority to be unlawful, invalid, unenforceable, or inconsistent with applicable law, that provision shall be deemed modified or severed only to the extent necessary.

The remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

19.5 Assignment

The Company may assign, transfer, delegate, or otherwise transfer its rights, obligations, or interests under this Privacy Policy in connection with a merger, acquisition, restructuring, sale of business, investment, corporate reorganisation, or other lawful business transaction.

Users may not assign or transfer any rights or obligations arising under this Privacy Policy without the Company's prior written consent.

19.6 Electronic Records & Communications

Users acknowledge that this Privacy Policy is published and made available in electronic form.

Electronic records, electronic communications, electronic consents, electronic acknowledgements, and digital acceptance relating to this Privacy Policy shall have the same validity and enforceability as physical or written records, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

19.7 Language

This Privacy Policy is drafted in the English language.

Where the Company provides translations of this Privacy Policy for convenience, the English version shall prevail in the event of any inconsistency, ambiguity, or conflict, unless otherwise required by applicable law.

19.8 Company's Right to Improve Privacy Practices

The Company continually reviews and enhances its privacy practices, security measures, operational procedures, technologies, and internal governance to improve the protection of Personal Information and to comply with evolving legal, regulatory, and industry standards.

Nothing in this Privacy Policy shall prevent the Company from adopting stronger privacy protections than those described herein.

19.9 No Limitation of Statutory Rights

Nothing contained in this Privacy Policy shall be interpreted as excluding, restricting, or limiting any rights or protections that cannot lawfully be excluded or restricted under applicable law.

Similarly, nothing in this Privacy Policy shall be interpreted as requiring the Company to undertake obligations beyond those imposed by applicable law or expressly stated in this Privacy Policy.

19.10 Future Privacy Enhancements

As the GOGETFIT Platform evolves, the Company may introduce new privacy controls, consent mechanisms, user settings, security features, transparency tools, or other privacy-enhancing technologies. The introduction of such features shall not reduce the protections afforded under this Privacy Policy and may provide Users with additional control over their Personal Information.

Section 20: ACCEPTANCE OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY

By accessing, registering for, or using the GOGETFIT Platform or any Services provided by the Company, Users acknowledge that they have read, understood, and accepted this Privacy Policy.

Where applicable, Users further acknowledge that they have had the opportunity to review this Privacy Policy before providing Personal Information or using the Platform.

If a User does not agree with this Privacy Policy or any future amendments made in accordance with this Privacy Policy, the User should discontinue use of the Platform and Services.

20.1 User Acknowledgement

By continuing to access or use the GOGETFIT Platform, the User acknowledges that:

- They have read this Privacy Policy;
- They understand how the Company collects, uses, stores, shares, retains, and protects Personal Information;
- They understand their rights and responsibilities relating to Personal Information; and
- They agree to this Privacy Policy to the extent permitted by applicable law.

20.2 Consent to Processing

Where consent is required under applicable law, the User voluntarily consents to the collection, use, storage, disclosure, transfer, and processing of Personal Information by the Company for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

Where consent is not the legal basis for processing, the Company may process Personal Information on other lawful grounds permitted under applicable law.

20.3 Continued Use

Subject to applicable law, continued use of the GOGETFIT Platform after the Effective Date of any revised Privacy Policy constitutes acknowledgment of the updated Privacy Policy. Where additional consent is legally required for specific processing activities, the Company will obtain such consent before undertaking those activities.

20.4 Electronic Acceptance

Users acknowledge that acceptance of this Privacy Policy may occur through electronic means, including but not limited to:

- Creating a GOGETFIT account;
- Verifying a registered mobile number through OTP;
- Accessing or using the Platform;
- Purchasing a Coaching Plan;
- Clicking an "I Agree", "Accept", or similar button where provided;
- Providing information through the Platform; or
- Any other electronic method recognised under applicable law.

Such electronic acceptance shall have the same legal effect as a written acceptance, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

20.5 Entire Understanding Regarding Privacy

This Privacy Policy, together with the Company's Terms & Conditions and other applicable policies, constitutes the complete understanding between the User and the Company regarding the collection, use, disclosure, storage, retention, and protection of Personal Information through the GOGETFIT Platform.

Nothing contained in this Privacy Policy limits any rights or obligations arising under applicable law.
