9.9 Expiry of Coaching Plans

Upon expiry of a Coaching Plan, the User's access to coaching services associated with that plan shall automatically cease unless renewed. The User may continue to access certain features of the GOGETFIT Platform that are made available to non-subscribed users, subject to these Terms. Section 10: CANCELLATION, REFUNDS & COACH CHANGES

The Company aims to maintain a fair and transparent cancellation and refund process while ensuring that Coaches are appropriately compensated for the time and effort invested in preparing personalized coaching services.

By purchasing a Coaching Plan, Users acknowledge and agree to the cancellation and refund terms set out in this Section.

10.1 Cancellation Before Plan Activation

Users may request cancellation of their Coaching Plan at any time before the Coaching Plan has been activated by the assigned Coach.

Where such cancellation is approved, the Company may deduct reasonable administrative charges of up to ten percent (10%) of the total Coaching Plan fee before processing the refund.

Administrative charges may include, without limitation, payment gateway charges, applicable taxes, transaction processing costs, onboarding expenses, and other reasonable administrative costs incurred by the Company.

"Administrative Charges" means reasonable costs incurred by the Company in connection with processing payments, taxes, onboarding, payment gateway charges, transaction costs, and other operational expenses associated with a Coaching Plan.

- Successful payment;
- Completion of the onboarding process;
- Submission of the required questionnaires, health information, and metrics by the User; and
- Completion of the personalized coaching plan by the Coach.

The Coaching Plan shall commence only after activation by the Coach and not merely upon successful payment.

10.4 Coach Preparation Period

Following successful purchase of a Coaching Plan and completion of the required onboarding information by the User, the assigned Coach shall be provided a reasonable period to prepare the User's personalized coaching plan.

The Coach and the User may mutually decide an appropriate activation date, following which the Coach shall activate the Coaching Plan on the Platform.

10.5 Refund Processing

Where a refund is approved by the Company, the refund shall ordinarily be initiated within a reasonable period.

The time taken for the refunded amount to reflect in the User's account shall depend upon the respective payment gateway, banking institution, card issuer, or financial service provider and may typically take between five (5) and seven (7) working days, or such other period as determined by the relevant third-party service provider.

The Company shall not be responsible for delays attributable to third-party payment processors or financial institutions.

Users who are dissatisfied with their assigned Coach may request a change of Coach.

The Company may facilitate such change subject to:

- Availability of another Coach at the same Coach Level;
- Operational feasibility; and
- Applicable Company policies.

A request for change of Coach shall not entitle the User to any refund.

Users requesting a Coach from a different Coach Level may be required to purchase a new Coaching Plan or pay the applicable price difference, as determined by the Company.

10.7 Non-Transferability

Coaching Plans are personal to the enrolled User.

A Coaching Plan may not be transferred, assigned, sold, gifted, or otherwise used by any other individual unless expressly permitted by the Company under a specific Coaching Plan.

10.8 Exceptional Circumstances

The Company understands that unforeseen and exceptional situations may arise.

In exceptional cases involving genuine humanitarian or compassionate circumstances, the Company may, at its sole discretion and without creating any obligation or precedent, consider providing an alternative solution, including but not limited to:

- A goodwill credit;
- A special renewal offer;
- Any other reasonable accommodation deemed appropriate by the Company.

Nothing contained in this Clause shall obligate the Company to provide any refund, extension, pause, or compensation.

10.9 Payment Disputes

Payments made through the GOGETFIT Platform are processed by authorized third-party payment service providers.

Any issues relating to payment authorization, transaction failures, banking delays, charge processing, or payment gateway errors shall primarily be governed by the policies of the respective payment service provider.

Where payment is successfully confirmed, the User shall be directed to complete the onboarding process.
The Company shall make reasonable efforts to assist Users in resolving genuine payment-related concerns but shall not be liable for delays or failures attributable to third-party payment service providers.

10.10 Future Policies

The Company reserves the right to introduce, modify, or discontinue policies relating to plan pauses, extensions, transfers, upgrades, downgrades, refunds, cancellations, or other subscription management features as the GOGETFIT Platform evolves.

©GGF Lifestyle Technologies Private Limited

Any such changes shall apply in accordance with these Terms and any supplementary policies published by the Company.

10.11 No Suspension of Plan Validity

Unless expressly approved by the Company in writing, the validity of a Coaching Plan shall continue from the date of activation and shall not be suspended, extended, or paused due to the User's non-participation, travel, personal commitments, inability to communicate, or failure to use the Services.

Account closure shall not automatically entitle the User to any refund, compensation, transfer of Coaching Plans, extension of subscriptions, or restoration of unused benefits unless expressly provided under these Terms or any applicable policy.

16.4 Effect of Suspension or Termination

Upon suspension or termination:

- access to the Platform may be restricted or permanently disabled;
